

MgA. Petr Prokop is an Assistant Professor at DAMU's Department of Arts Management where he focuses on Czech theatre infrastructure and the operations of independent theatres and projects. He chaired the Academic Senate of AMU in 2018-2021 and was involved in the enactment of new internal AMU regulations in connection with its newly attained institutional accreditation. He is a founding member, producer and one of the premier artists of the Divadlo Vosto5 where he has been involved continuously since 1996. Since 2020 he has been the CEO of Vzlet, a new culture palace. He is a founding member of the Czech Association of Independent Theatre and a member of its Council. He wants to use the experience gained in chairing the Academic Senate of AMU in the next term of office, helping the new leaders of AMU to responsibly manage the school during the current difficult period.
